Somewhere Lombok, as your guests see it online.

A snapshot of your Google profile, booking sites, website and Instagram, built from public data. Twenty hillside villas, fire-side dinners and sunrise over Are Guling Bay give you plenty to film. Here's where creator video could help.

RECENT INSTAGRAM POSTS

"Dinner plans, upgraded. An evening by the fire, a table set just for you…" Carousel. Your strongest offer, shown as stills.

"We love seeing your pictures! Thank you for sharing." Carousel of guest photos. Guests already make content here.

"Somewhere Lombok aka heaven to capture (and stay)." A creator collab carousel, reshared to your feed.

WHAT STANDS OUT

- A 4.8 on Google from 476 reviews, and 9+ on booking sites. That is the hard part.
- Design Hotels member, bookable through Marriott Bonvoy and listed in the MICHELIN Guide.
- Creators already love shooting here: @theobalbach's Super 8 reel, @blakehobsonphoto, guest reshares.
- Your website is one splash page with an email address. Instagram visitors can't see villas or book direct.
- Creator content is ad hoc. It arrives when someone happens to visit, not on a schedule you set.
- 99 posts for 17.9k followers. The audience is there; the feed is thin, with few Reels.

Turn one-off creator visits into a steady pipeline.

Collabnb connects boutique stays with pre-vetted travel and lifestyle creators. A creator stays with you and delivers the content you agree on. You set up and manage listings how you want, and we stay in the background if you need help.

WHY IT WORKS

$5–6.50

Industry surveys report that brands earn roughly $5 to $6.50 in revenue for every $1 spent on influencer marketing, with top campaigns well above that. A creator stay costs you a few nights in a villa you already have.

Vendor-reported averages from Tomoson (via Shopify) and Stack Influence, not Collabnb results. Directional only.

HOW IT WORKS

1

Your listing is already built

We pre-filled it from your public profile: photos, location, rating, a creator brief. Check it, edit anything, publish when ready.

2

Pre-vetted creators apply

Creators are vetted before they can apply. You see their profiles, audience and past work, and you choose who stays.

3

They stay, film, post

You manage each collab how you want. Content lands in your inbox with usage rights, ready for your feed and ads.

WHAT THIS COULD LOOK LIKE AT SOMEWHERE

The private table

Fire-side dinner on the lawn, filmed from set-up to sunset. Made for proposals and birthdays.

Sunrise at the infinity pool

The bay before anyone's up. One Reel, one carousel, endless reposts.

Villa tour, door to bay

Walk-through from the entrance to your own plunge pool and the view.

WHAT YOU STAY IN CONTROL OF

- Which villas and dates you open up
- Which creators you accept
- What content you ask for
- How you communicate with each creator
- Your calendar and direct-booking link
- Pausing or ending a listing at any time

Your listing is ready to claim.
